"TENT LIFE IN THE EAST."-Such is the attractive title of a lecture to be delivered under the auspices of the Ladies' Benevo-lent Society of the Second Presbyterian church, for the benefit of old Hampden Sidney College. In the hands of so able and eloquent a scholar as Dr. Hoge the most common-place themes are invested with rainbow hues of thought. It cannot be doubted, therefore, that in depicting life under the canvas in Oriental lands he will come fully up to his extended reputation, and the lecture be no less an intellectual treat than was the celebrated one on "The Land of the Midnight Sun." Dr. Hoge possesses not only the happy faculty of se-lecting pleasing captions for his public ef-forts, but has the even greater charm of making those efforts not alone interesting and entertaining, but full of instruction For the benefit of our friends in the Cockade city the Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Company will issue special tickets for night with a beautiful, cultivated, and appreciative audience. The Orient is the land of mystery, the favored haunt of fiction, and a realm in which poets, painters, and ald in their power to make the affair one of artists have long been wont to revel. Much that is interesting and more that is enter taining and instructive will to-night be unfolded by a master mind.
